"Dear Ruth"

You've all heard of romance springing up between ardent and poetic letter-writers. But how would you feel if you found that someone was falling in love with you via V-Mail with the help of your over-sophisticated kid sister? Ruth Wilkins (Carolyn Wiley) didn't like the idea.

Things had been comparatively quiet in the Wilkin's household. Miriam (Beverly McFadgen), sweet sixteen, was working on various war relief and obnoxious peace campaigns. Mrs. Wilkins (Pat McCormick) worried about things in general; Ruth Wilkins, 21, worried about her fiance Albert Kummer (Dick Williams), a solicitous bank president. Judge Harry Wilkins (Johnny Herbst) spent most of his time just holding his temper—he thought his family rather nerve-wracking at times.

Then, things began to happen. Lieutenant William Seawright (Jack Davis), a pilot, showed up and started making love to Ruth. But Miriam let the cat out of the bag! She had been writing poetic love letters to this lieutenant and signing her sister Ruth's name. Judge Wilkins was furious, Mrs. Wilkins shocked, Ruth, raging, and Miriam in anguish.

Bill Seawright then came to take Ruth to dinner, and Ruth promised to explain the whole horrible mistake. Ruth confessed, on returning, that she couldn't tell him, and would write and explain when he returned overseas.

But everyone underestimated the lieutenant. Flowers and crackerjack began to arrive hourly from Bill to Dora (Grace Lane) the maid. Bill Seawright's sister, Martha, rushes from Philadelphia to the Wilkins' for what she thinks will be Bill's wedding to Ruth. Here, Martha encounters a former fiance, Bill's friend, Chuck Vincent. Bill telephones for their shipping orders, and discovers both are to remain in the States! Martha and Chuck reconcile and decide to marry. Bill proposes to Ruth, who is growing to really love Bill, but she turns him down. Miriam, finds Bill alone and spills the whole mix-up to him. Embarrassed, he leaves hurriedly after Martha and Chuck's wedding, at the last minute, he and Ruth make up, are married hastily and race to the train after Chuck and Martha. Under the able and patient direction of drama coach E. Rutherford, they finally lived happily ever after.

"The Baby Sitter"

Bob Ballard (Harvey Wiles) has a date with his steady girl, Carrie (Jean Holliman) fouled up by his parents (Donna Fisher and Don Wilkinson) who have arranged a date for him with Eunice (Nancy Kerbs) his sister, Helen, (Maxine Eben) and her boy-friend, Carl (Bob Markham.) Carrie, arriving home finds that her date with Bob is off. Rather than spend Saturday evening by herself, she offers to take care of Gordon Junior (Carma Sawyer), the son of Mr. Ballard's employer who is staying at the Ballards' while his parents are out of town. Her offer is reluctantly accepted by Bob's parents who have developed a dislike for her.

Junior and Friend, Lefty (Nancy Koblar) make Carrie's life miserable during the evening acting like little demons. The regular baby-sitter's friends, Dod and Midge (Lorraine Carley and Claire Ann Lasic) arrive and with the help of Junior and Lefty, clean out the icebox. Junior then gets into kid-sister Jane's (Leola Hooker) botany box and eats mushrooms which Carrie and Bob believe might be poisonous toadstools. Antidotes of egg whites and mustard are forced down Junior and in the midst of this confusion, Mr. and Mrs. Ballard and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon (Bill McFarlane and Joean Deininger) arrive home and immediately accuse Carrie of trying to kill the "Poor, innocent boy."

Jane appears on the scene and announces that her prize "Death Angel" is missing and the doctor tells Mr. Gordon that Carrie's actions may have saved Junior's life. With the help of drama coach, E. A. Rutherford, the play ends happily with Bob and Carrie reunited, and Junior getting a little well-deserved pressure in the right place from his father.

Orchestra

Chorus

Band

Orchestra

Under Mr. Hillend's conducting, the senior orchestra has had a busy and interesting year. The "Winter Jubilee", "February Fiesta" and district contest were some of the many activities in which they took part.

Composed mostly of Junior High School string players, their audiences have been amazed at the growth and progress made during the past year. "Long-hair" music as well as jazz and novelty numbers made a varied repertoire.

A string sextet, chosen from orchestra members, proved to be a popular feature at concerts and civic affairs.

They plan to end their year with a pleasure trip to various parts of Oregon.

Chorus

Beginning with the traditional Christmas concert and concluding with a spring presentation, the Chorus achieved a busy and successful year.

The junior and advanced choruses, and various small ensembles performed for numerous clubs, groups and banquets. Among these were Chamber of Commerce, Jr. Chamber of Commerce, Elks, Rotary, Soroptomists, 4-H and annual Citizens' Banquet. In addition to these the annual program was given at Woodburn.

Band

To begin their years work, the Senior band, under the direction of Mr. Ervin Lesser, took part in the Milwaukie Centennial parade, followed closely by the football season. Combined with the 49er's and majorettes, the halftime drills were a popular feature of home games at Kelly Field.

The Community Chest drive, dedication of the new armory, Civilian Defense Programs, Elks, and Masons have made a busy year along with concerts for other civic meetings.

The climax of the "Winter Jubilee" and "February Fiesta" was furnished by the band in the scarlet and black uniforms. A selected "Pep Band" of boys added enthusiasm to basketball games.

Band officers were Colonel, Charles Tucker; Major, Bill Freeman; Recorder, Carolyn Potter and Librarian, Connie Kinley.

Hesperian Staff

Another year rolls around and the 1951 Hesperian is here to bring back past memories of this school term.

We, the staff, sincerely hopes that each and every student is pleased with this publication. We have tried to make it as interesting as possible and to cover all the main events in and around school insofar as our means permitted us to do so.

We wish to thank those teachers and students who have given their untiring effort in helping to make this book possible. We hope this book will measure up to the best standards set by past Hesperians. May it prove to be as satisfying as the former editions have been.

Elevator

The Oregon City High School paper, the Elevator, is published monthly by the students of the sixth period journalism class, taught by Mrs. Dorothy Roe, advisor to the publication.

Students handle all non-technical phases of publication, from writing advertising copy and news stories, to proofreading and distribution.

Each issue is carefully prepared, as it is annually submitted to a national critical service for competition with other student publications of the nation. The Elevator has consistently won first place awards in such competition.

The editor this year is Dick Williams; assistant editor, Jean Shrick; sports editor, Jim Tennyson; business manager, Pollyann Plymate; advertising manager, Pat McCormich; advisor, Mrs. Dorothy Roe; Copyreader, Duane Alvord.

Row 1: Bruce Henning, Elmer Witteker, Dick Williams, Carolyn Potter, Laura Coffman.

Girls' League

The Girls' League is the largest and one of the most active school organizations in Oregon City. The council, with the direction of Mrs. Smith, Dean of Girls, has guided the group through many varied activities. The girls presented the traditional Inter-Faith program at Thanksgiving and created a Winter Wonderland in connection with their annual Christmas Ball. On Valentine's Day they set up a special Western Union Service, and for the annual Mother-Daughter Tea transformed the cafeteria into an Old Dutch Garden.

The 1950-51 council includes:

Row 1: Secretary, Lorraine Thomas; Treasurer, LaVonne Barnard; Sophomore Representative, Pat Gross.

Library Club

The members of the Library Club assist Mrs. Christenson in the regular routine work in the library. They mend books, take inventory, help students with their reference work and are in charge of the bulletin board and exhibit case.

The Library Club had a Christmas dinner and various other parties this year. Each year they take an educational trip to Salem.

They held various food sales in order to raise money to send books to a foreign country.

The officers for the year were: Shirley Armstrong, President; Doris Lilly, Vice-President; and Bette Toman, Secretary-Treasurer.

Row 2: Rita Wiles, Jacqueline Padrta, Eleanor Bowman, Doris Lilly, Mrs. Christenson, Louise Gould, Donna Armstrong, Nila Gibson.

International Relations Club

The I R C Club is an organization that is interested in developing and maintaining a close relationship between all countries.

Membership is restricted to juniors and seniors, with Miss Callihan as our advisor. The club has become a very active and interesting organizattion.

The activities of the group are almost entirely centered around things that relate to national, international and social affairs. Members of the group have appeared before the Tri-County Institute and The Rotary Club, and have sponsored two special programs in which foreign students from Reed College and Portland University participated.

The officers are as follows: President, Ray Streight; Vice-President, Pat Finnegan; Secretary, Pat McCormick; Treasurer, Marjorie Bauer; Advisor, Miss Callihan.

Row 1: Marjorie Bauer, Audrey Hartenstein, Elaine Newson, Pat Finnegan, Nancy Kerbs, Ray Streight, Jimmy Johnson, Dewey Kruger, Claire Lyons, Jean Schrick, Jaya Romula, Earlene Hall.

The Junior Red Cross is an organization that devotes much of its time to service. This includes at least one visit to Barnes Hospital, the filling of gift boxes for the underprivileged at home and abroad, and the sponsoring of a movie of which the proceeds go to help fill a County Gift Chest.

Each home room elects a representative to the local council which serves as a coordinating committee for the entire school. The local council sends representatives to the county council which meets once a month. Oregon City was most fortunate to have Kenneth Hume as County President and Jean Maulding as County Vice-President.

Officers for the year were: Mel Uptegrove, President; Fred Hogg, Vice-President.

Y-Teens

This club is a member of a world wide organization sponsored by the Y W. C. A. Its purpose is to help girls to grow physically, mentally, and spiritually into more gracious persons, to grow in friendship with other nations and to grow in the knowledge of God.

Membership in the Y-Teens is based upon church membership, Christian character, service, and scholarship. The officers for 1950-51 were: President, Jane Rapp; Vice-President, Nancy Kerbs; Secretary, Jean Schrick; Treasurer, Arla Sauve; General Chairman, Marilyn Hockett.

Hi-Y Club

The Hi-Y Club is an active school organization, composed of boys, who are ever mindful that high standards of Christian character are essential factors that make for good school and good community life.

The club has regular evening meetings, often going to the homes of the membership. The club assists in school programs and drives, participates in the Youth and Government program, and this year sent Richard Williams and Don Serres as members of the House of Representatives of the Hi-Y Legistlature at Salem in April. Ray Streight was the Chaplain of the Senate and Brent Cameron a member of the reporting staff. The club has charge of the annual Christmas School assembly program and the presenting of the Awards of Merit to oustanding students. The club has developed a chorus which helps out in various school programs and also entertains at the Girl's League Spring Tea. The officers this year are: President, Tom Gutzler; Vice-President, Ronald Tuel; Secretary-Treasurer, Ronald Engebrecht.

Girls' O.C.Club

The school year passed by quickly and the Girls' OC Club was active and willing all of the way. There were outstanding activities and the year year was indeed a merry one. Two initiations were held for the incoming members, a potluck, candy sales during activity periods and noon, a trip to Seaside, skating parties, cup cake sale, sock dances, taking the job of campaigning to raise money for the March of Dimes, and a dance were part of the things done by the club.

This year's officers include, Myrna Horner, President; Lois McKee, Vice-President; Audrey Hartenstein, Secretary; and, Carolyn Schnaible, Treasurer. The advisor is Mrs. Trimble.

Boys' O.C. Club

The Boys' O. C. Club is composed of all the lettermen from the student body. Any person earning a letter in the four sports of our high school—football, basketball, wrestling, or baseball—is eligible to join if he is voted into the club.

Under the new leadership of Mr. Elliot, head football coach, the club has done the following things: written a new constitution, put on a skit for a pep assembly, sold candy in school, and held the ropes at home basketball games.

This year the club is sponsoring the O. C. pins that are to be given to any letterman earning 16 points in any one sport. Officers for the year were Dick Shick (President), Kenny Hay (Vice-President), and Earl Nutt (Secretary-Treasurer).

Rally Squad

In the past year three members selected from each of the three Senior High School classes comprised one of the liveliest rally squads of the Oregon City High School. These members were elected by their fellow students on their pep, personality, and their ability to work hard.

For the first time this year the cheer leaders have been able to use acrobatics in yells. Donna Bauer, a sophomore cheer leader, deserves to take a bow for her excellent stunts. Donna attracted much attention from appreciative spectators.

The rest, as well as Donna, have had pep and lots of spunk. By working hard they have done their job well. The squad has gone on to cheer the boys to victory and championships.

The uniforms this year for the Rally Squad were: red culottes and white sweators for the Song Queens, white culottes and white sweaters for girl Cheer Leaders, and white pants with white sweaters for boy Cheer Leaders.

49ers

The 49ers, a service club and drill team was made up of girls chosen by a written examination prepared by Mr. Lesser, their advisor. Half-time stunts on Kelly Field with majorettes and band, collecting funds for the March of Dimes, and marching in parades made up their main activities. Their spirit and enthusiasm at Pep assemblies continued throughout the sports seasons.

Their uniforms are red pleated skirts and white V-necked sweaters with covered wagon and 49er emblems.

Row 1: Joyce Herbst, Eleanor Bowman, Ruth Risen, Jackie Owens, Earlene Hall, Nancy Koblar, Leola Hooker, Mary Jo Blackwell, Helen Bertilson, Tag Cross, Myrna Syverson.
Row 2: Laura Coffman, Margaret Remily, Donna Simonson, Betty Young, Gail Sosnovske, Jane Alscott, Sally Wilson, Beverly Knudson, Nancy Kerbs, Eunice Jackson, Dolores Koch, Kay Whiteman, Mary Stuhr.

Majorettes

The dancing majorettes (different from twirling majorettes) have won much acclaim during the past year, participating in the "Winter Jubilee" and "February Fiesta" with their interpretive dances. At "All State Band Day" in Eugene, crowds were delighted with their dance version of "St. Louis Blues March," and thus started a new trend in majorettes throughout the state.

Dressed in their cowgirl outfits they have added color and spark to football games, parades and civic affairs. Mr. Lesser is their director.

Row 2: Carolyn Wiley, Joan Smith, Beverly Knudson, Joan Deininger, Leola Hooker, Dolores Koch, Jean Maulding, Joyce Herbst.

F. H. A.

The Future Homemakers of America this year had 33 members. The biggest project of the year was the District Conference which was held at Oregon City. Other activities included joint initiation with the F.F.A., choosing a queen of F. H. A. week, displays in downtown store windows, candy sales, dances after games, and sending two delegates to the State Convention at Corvallis.

This year officers are: Joan Deininger, President; Jackie Owens, Vice-President; Joyce Stone, Secretary; Darlene Murphy, Treasurer; Shirley Thompson, Reporter; Laura Cauffman, Parliamentarian; Barbara Courter, Degree Chairman; Beulah Bolkan and Ruth Risen, Song Leaders.

Row 1: Juanita Miles, Vera Nutt, Maxine Eben, Laura Coffman, Dorene Barrows, Shirley Murphy, Joan Neilson.

Row 4: Miss Autenreith, Beulah Bolkan, Sally Corless, Darlene Murphy, Pat Hayward, Odelia Weiniger, Grace Lane.

F. F. A.

Any boy enrolled in Vocational Ag in high school and interested in farming is eligible for membership in the F.F.A. This past year Oregon City had 52 members, each with a project.

Outstanding was the Parliamentary team which took 2nd at the district and inter-district contest. Outstanding also was the performance of Dennis Roach who took third place in the District Public Speaking Contest. The boys successfully put over many money raising functions such as a movie and candy selling.

Row 1: Dale Jepson, Bill Essig, Raymond Stelts, Bob Haun, Leroy Arnett, Dick Young.
Row 2: Mr. Leach, Doyle Poole, Glenn Arnett, Gene Lewis, Gerald Leach, Ernest Harbal, Ben Stanley.

Row 4: Charles Tucker, Lynn Forrestall, Wayne Streight, Loren Todd, Dennis Roach, Keith Griffith, Don Wilkinson, Eugene Fisher.

Firemen

The student Fire Squad is composed of about twenty boys whose duties are to clear the building in case of fire, inspect fire apparatus, police sports events—in general, serve as a check against student panic and insure orderly withdrawal from the building.

As a special project this year, we purchased 24 new sweaters, paying 50% of the total price which was $215.00

Officers are: Harvey Timberman, Chief; Bob Markham, Captain; and Dave Tuthill, Lieutenant. The advisor is Mr. F. O'Brien.

Row 1: Herbie Woodford, Glenn Hodgkinson, Ray Schuell, Jack Winans, Bruce Hosford, Bob Schuh, Mr. O'Brien.

Boys' League Council

"Why can't we have a Boys' League?" This question, heard in boys' crowds for the past few years, became a reality last fall when a committee of boys petitioned the student council to authorize the organization of such a club.

Boys on the student council worked with Ronald Englebrecht, chairman of the petitioners and Mr. Dan Jones to set up machinery for the organization.

A constitution was drawn up, officers were nominated, and the boys of the high school were invited to a special "first meeting" where officers were elected.

The purposes of the league are to promote better citizenship among all boys of the school and to provide opportunities for the boys to voice their problems and questions which they may have concerning activities and problems in the school.

In the fall several programs were given, including a talk on trap shooting by Mr. William Estes, a forum meeting open to opinion from the audience on school problems, and a talent show sponsored with the Girls' League.

T Y V League Champs

Coach "Chuck" Elliott's Pioneer gridsters turned one of their best performances in many years as they came through the 1950 season sporting an eight won and two lost record. The Red and White grid machine, hardly considered a contender at the beginning of the year, raced through their TYV league schedule with seven wins and no losses to cop their first football trophy since their entry into the league. They also won the district berth in the state playoffs by vote from Banks but were bounced by Eugene 27-7 in their first game. The boys won the West Linn-Oregon City five year trophy.

The lightweight Oregon City line time and time again outcharged their heavier opponents opening holes for their fast backs. Making up the usual starting lineup were Gary Millen and Bill Bauer, ends, Kenny Hay and Gordon Layden, tackles, Jack McElroy, Ray Streight, or Bill Brazney, guards, and Darrel Persyn, center. In the offensive backfield were Dick Kauffman, fleet-footed left half who led the season scoring with 11 touchdowns for 66 points, George McNeal at right half, and Harold Tietz or Earl Nutt at fullback.

Oregon City placed three players on the annual TYV league all-star team. Nailing down first team berths were Ray Streight, Bill Bauer, and Dick Kauffman. Hay and McElroy made the second team.

Jim Aiken, University of Oregon football coach, was the main speaker at the football banquet held at the Oregon City Elks temple. Streight was given the annual Bernie Herrman "Most Inspirational Player" award. Streight and Bill Bauer were voted co-captains and letters were awarded to 20 boys.

B-Squad Basketball

The Oregon City B squad finished their season with one of the best records ever held by a Pioneer athletic team. The "Babes" raced through their 21 game schedule without a loss and won the mythical TYV league "B" title for the third straight year. They ran up a total of 1010 points against their opponents' total of 676.

Pint sized guard Elvy Hauck paced the scoring by throwing 233 points through the hoop. He was followed by bean pole Jerry Patterson, six-foot-five center, who scored 185 points and was the leading rebounder.

There were two close calls for the Pioneer juniors as they edged Gresham and Beaverton by a single point. More than once they staged their famous fourth quarter rally to come from behind and win.

Row 1: Larry Smith, Marvin May, Palmer Clark, Sam Zern, Jack McGregor, Garrett Hartke.

Varsity

Although picked as a strong contender for the TYV League title at the beginning of the year, the Oregon City A squad had only a mediocre season, winning eight while losing fourteen. Despite their poor record the Pioneer hoopsters accomplished one feat seldom duplicated, even in good years. This was the fact that they won two games from both Milwaukie and West Linn, their two biggest rivals.

In league play the Pioneers wound up with six wins and eight losses for a fifth place tie with Forest Grove. They were beaten out 53 to 45 by a West Linn team they had whipped twice previously in the first game at the District tournament held this year at Molalla.

Oregon City had one of the toughest pre-league schedules they have had for some time. In their opener they met Central Catholic of Portland, picked as the top team in the state several times by the Associated Press poll. Games with two other Portland teams, Washington and Cleveland, and two with a strong Gresham squad accounted for the poorer early season showing. In league play they had twin wins over Tigard, Beaverton, and West Linn. They lost their two game series with Newberg, league champs. McMinnville, Forest Grove, and Hillsboro.

Ken Hay was outstanding as he was chosen on the league all star team and voted team captain by the lettermen. He led the scoring with 270 points.

Wrestling

Two trophies were added to the trophy case by Jack Connor's 1951 wrestling team. The grapplers won second place in District one and went on to take fourth in the State Tournament. In all, the wrestlers had a very good season winning nine of 13 dual matches and placing second in both the district and TYV tourneys.

Oregon City, always a top contender in wrestling, won matches from Molalla, Sandy, Canby, Parkrose, Newberg, West Linn, McMinnville, and Tigard while losing to Sandy, Canby, Parkrose, and Hillsboro.

Newberg edged out the Pioneers 47 to 44 to take top honors in the TYV League with Hillsboro's 43 gaining them third place. Bob New and Jack McElroy won first in their divisions and Frank Belgarde, Bill Raney, Chuck Williams, Dale Grassman, Rodney Hansen, and Eugene Grade placed second.

At district Oregon City was again beaten out by three slim points, this time by Hillsboro 57 to 54. Parkrose was third with 40. Eleven Pioneers qualified for state. Winning firsts were Belgarde, Hansen, New, McElroy, and Williams. Bob Bates won second and Raney, Bardwell Marshall, and Jack Hidy came in third. Placing fourth were Dale Morris and Grassman.

Klamath Falls won the state championship with 43 points followed by Salem with 39, Canby 27, Oregon City 21, Hillsboro 20, and Albany with 16. New was the only Oregon City champion but McElroy and Belgarde placed second.

Bob New went through the season without a loss winning 13 matches by pins and 11 by decisions. He won the TYV, state, and state AAU championships in the 146 pound class. McElroy wrestled a total of 23 matches winning all but two. He won first in district, TYV, and the state AAU matches and placed second in state. Belgarde won 21, lost four, placed second in TYV and state, and won the district championship.

Charles Williams, sophomore, also had a good record with 17 wins and five losses. Rodney Hansen won 14, lost four, and tied four. Dale Grassman had an eleven and six record.

Row 1: Chuck Williams, Gene Grade, Duane Gunderson, Bill Raney, Bob New, Frank Belgarde, Bob Bates, Earl Nutt.

Track

With only one returning letterman, George McNeal, the track outlook for the Pioneer thinclads was not too good. Dan Jones, track mentor, and his assistants Jack Connors and Chuck Elliott did mainly a building job, working with the numerous sophomore and junior prospects.

At our deadline Oregon City had participated in only one meet. The Pioneers made a fair showing by placing third with 22 points, behind Hillsboro with 52 and West Linn's 50. Tigard and Forest Grove placed fourth and fifth respectively. McNeal won first in the 100, and 220 yard dashes and 440 yard run to pace the Pioneers. He broke the school record for the 100 by a tenth of a second but it was nullified because of a strong tailwind.

Other standouts were Bill Craig and Ray Streight in the 880, J. C. Wheeler in the high hurdles, George Stevens in the high jump, and Dale Grier and Dale Anderson in the pole vault.

Managers

One of the most important boys on an athletic team is the manager, he does the most work and receives the least credit. He is on the receiving end of all the players jokes and pranks. A mistake is not soon forgotten. This year Oregon City had a very efficient crew of managers. Handling football were Larry Smith, Fred Lohman, and Garrett Hartke. Hartke and Smith managed basketball while Bob Anderson took care of the wrestlers. Jack McGregor and Hartke served the baseball squad and two "Larrys", Smith and Hansen, the track team.

Row 1: Larry Smith, Garrett Hartke.
Row 2: Jack McGregor, Bob Anderson and Fred Lohman.

BASEBALL

Oregon City was picked to win their third straight league baseball championship this year and at the time of this writing was well on their way towards doing so. Coach Wayne Bauer had a team packed with material including nine lettermen from last year's team.

Leading the pitching department was veteran Don Hopp. Others on the chucking staff were Jack Montgomery, Gary Millen, Ken Hay, Marvin May, and Jim Johnson. Catchers were lettermen Tom Combs and Wally Harding. At first base it was either Hay or Jim Tennyson. Dick Shick filled the spot at second and was backed up by Elvy Hauck. Bill Bauer played shortstop and Nick Nickles third. Johnson was a utility infielder.

In the outfield two year letterman Dick Kauffman, freshman Otto Mott, and Flip Misley usually drew starting berths. Tom Mostul and Earl Nutt also saw considerable action.

Hopp and Millen combined their efforts to shut out Gresham 14 to 0 in the season curtain raiser. The first loss came as the Pioneers dropped a 5 to 4 decision to Grant of Portland. Hay got credit for the win as Oregon City scalped Molalla 17 to 1. In the first league game Hopp again came through by blanking McMinnville 11 to 0. Hillsboro was dropped 4 to 0 with Millen getting the win. Forest Grove scored the first run off the Pioneers in league action but Oregon City won their fourth straight 2 to 1.

F. H. A.

Student Council

Under the able leadership of our principal, Mr. Cameron, the Student Council of O. C. Jr. Hi has made great strides in coordinating activities of our student body. Particularly good cooperation has been given by all home rooms in our student projects. Our noon intra-mural basketball, softball, and volleyball games were well supported as were the noon movies, presented twice a week.

Special out-side speakers made our Student Body meetings timely and interesting as well as educational.

We look back on the year 1950-51 as profitable and very enjoyable.

Honor Society

For the past sixteen years the Alpha Chapter of the National Junior Honor Society has been an active service club.

This year they helped with several P. T. A. meetings, sponsored a "Student v.s. Faculty" volleyball game and were in charge of the Visiting Day for the on coming ninth graders.

This year's officers are: The advisor, Mr. Hixson; president, Denise Bryant; vice-president, Don Metz; secretary, Carol Tuft.

Future Homemakers of Tomorrow

The "Future Homemakers of Tomorrow" club consists of all ninth grade girls taking homemaking.

A few of the activities held during the year were the formal installation and tea. A children's clothing drive for the Red Cross. We dressed many dolls for needy children at Christmas. In February, we put on our annual Style Show. March 15, the club council held a faculty tea, and for visiting day we put on a program and modeled our dresses made in Home Economics classes and shown in the Style Show.

The aims of our club are to teach the girls to become better homemakers as they become older and to provide social recreation having to do with homemaking.

Boys' League

The Boys' League is an organization of all Junior High School boys. Monthly meetings are held at which time programs of an educational, as well as an entertaining nature are offered. Each year the Boys' League sponsors the March of Dimes. Mr. Sawyer is the adviser. Officers of the League this year are: president, J. C. Wheeler; vice-president, Lee Kidsman; secretary, Don Metz.

Row 2: Bruce Finlayson, John Gettel, J. C. Wheeler. Gerald Renner, Jack Hogg, Rodny Marsh.

Hustler

The Hustler is the student publication of the Junior High School which is published once a month. This activity furnishes opportunity for those students interested in creative writing to express themselves and to keep the student body informed on happenings of the school. The Staff:

Row 3: Claudia Hitchman, reporter; Mildred Warner, reporter.
Row 4: Skippy Shearer, feature editor; Gene Fields, reporter; Mrs. Wade, adviser.

Hesperian

I am greatly indebted to my many capable co-workers, especially to Sue Frost, my assistant editor. I would like to thank Senior High for giving us a section in this annual. Mr. Bentz and his efficient photography club have made the job much easier. Mrs. Cox, you have been wonderful and I only hope everyone will enjoy reading this book as much as I have enjoyed working on it.

Row 1: Audrey Maserek, Mary Edith Knox, Sue Frost.
Row 2: Mr. Bentz, Mrs. Cox.

Photography Club

The Photography Club is a non-credit course available to Junior High students. Its interest is in providing instruction and equipment for beginners, also encouraging those more advanced students to learn more about photography.

The course consists of learning how to take, develop, print, inlarge, wash, dry, and many other steps in photography.

The club's main projects this year are taking pictures of all the clubs and organizations in school, and of all the ninth grade students individually for use in this "Hesperian" and in the office files. The club also took individual students pictures and school activity pictures, which were sold to the students to help pay for the expense of operating the club.

This club was organized during 1948 by the present advisor, Mr. Gale Bentz.

Dramatics

The Junior High School Dramatics Department has had a very busy and successful year. Mrs. Winifred Preston, the Director, has had the able assistance of Mr. Allen Richardson as technical director on the stage and Mr. Walter Rosebraugh helped with the painting of the scenery for "Cinderella."

As in the past, it has been the aim of the department to provide opportunity for all interested students to take part in a dramatic production. Then, having had their basic instruction, those students most interested may continue this work in high school; the others will have benefited by gaining self confidence, poise, and the ability to cooperate with others.

Varied types of plays were chosen, consisting of a group of one-act plays and two major three-act production. As usual, the first long play was given for all of the grade schools in Oregon City.

The ninth grade dramatics class gave "Cinderella" by Herman Ould, by arrangement with the Samuel Fencer Company and the eighth grade presented "Hans Brinker and the Silver Skates" by Dorothy Albert, by arrangement with Bakers Plays

In May the ninth grade dramatics class presented "Little Women," by Arthus Jearue by arrangement with the Northwestern Press which was well received. The one-act plays given this year were: "The Patchwork Quilt," by Rachel Field; "A Midsummer Night's Dream," by Henry Thomas; "The Princes and the Swineherd," by Gwendolen Seiler; "The Pied Piper", by Hermon Ould; and "Sir David Nears a Crown," by Stuart Walker.

The Department gave performances to the P. T. A., a short skit at Mount Pleasant School, and took the cast to Jennings Lodge to entertain their P.T.A.

Chorus

The Junior High School music department under the direction of Fabian Carangelo has had an eventful musical season. The newly formed Girls Glee Club and small ensembles participated in the regular Thanksgiving and Christmas programs. The Girls Glee Club also took part in the Senior High's annual Christmas program.

The music department has been active in furnishing the many civic organizations with pleasant music and entertainment to add to their programs. P.T.A. programs have also been enriched during the school year by numbers from the music department. When the Columbia Choir Boys came to Oregon City for a community concert, our glee club girls acted as hostesses and entertained them.

Orchestra

The Senior High Orchestra is made up of some Junior and Senior High students. Under the direction of Valjo Hillend. They will go to the district contest again this year which will be held at Milwaukie. They have played at two concerts, the "Winter Jubilee," and the "February Fiesta." They have accompanied several plays.

Junior High School Band

Mr. Ervin Lesser, the band director's, dream has come true. The Junior High band has progressed from a start of nothing to a fine playing group, providing a nucleus for the Senior band.

The band consists of sixty-one members who have played for important football and basketball games, the "Winter Jubilee," the "February Fiesta," also a concert for the Junior High.

This band is the first band in the school's history that has entered a contest. Soloists and small ensembles chosen from the group, alsc entered the District Contest.

Mr. Lesser said, "The greatest compliment I can pay, is that it is a 'professional' organization."

Ninth Grade

The ninth grade basketball team had a very successful season this year, winning 19 of their 23 games. The closest game was with Albany, ending with a score of 49-48, in our favor. This game was played overtime. The Junior pioneers zoomed to the top of the TYV League, to tie with Hillsboro and Beaverton for first place. Richard Bolts was the team manager; Jack Owens led the scoring with 212 points; Otto Mott made 149, J. C. Wheeler 121, Charles Misley 112, and Robert Hauck 101.
